As we make the next call for application for the residency programme that Pro Helvetia - Swiss Arts Council supports, we look back at the list of past awardees with a sense of pride. The artists, whether from India or Switzerland, have had meaningful experiences and have expressed their satisfaction at the way the residency has informed them and their practice.

The objective of the residencies is to stimulate creative and mutual exchange between artists from Switzerland and India. We invite artists and arts practitioners to apply for the residency being offered by Pro Helvetia and to develop their work in a climate of cultural diversity.

The last date for submission of application is 1 March 2014.
