Switzerland has rich literary traditions. From classic to contemporary works, Switzerland has created a literary tradition that has evolved in all four national languages. In September, Pro Helvetia will welcome Andrea Bianchetti, a writer and poet from the Italian canton of Ticino, who will read to audiences from Delhi, Jaipur and Goa and also participate in the European Languages Day on 26 September 2015.

The European Languages Day, jointly organised by the Council of Europe and the European Union, is successful in involving millions of people across 45 participating countries. Its objective is to celebrate linguistic diversity in Europe.

We look forward to your joining us.
