Season's greetings from Pro Helvetia New Delhi! We wish you a year of professional fulfillment and creative collaborations and take this opportunity to thank our partners and associates who have helped us make 2015 a successful year.

As we make the next call for application for the residency programme that Pro Helvetia - Swiss Arts Council supports, we look back at the list of past awardees. The artists, whether from India or Switzerland, have had meaningful experiences and many have expressed the way the residency has informed their practice.

The objective of these residencies is to stimulate creative and mutual exchange between artists from Switzerland and India. We invite artists and practitioners to apply before 1 March 2016 for the residencies on offer and to develop their work in a climate of cultural diversity.

Please note, the deadline is 1 March 2016.
