

Building networks and nurturing partnerships between artists from Switzerland and South Asia best illustrate the objectives of Pro Helvetia New Delhi's presence in the region. The month of May sees the realisation of two collaborations.

Thomas Heimann, Bruno Steiner and Simon Wunderlich from Ausstellungsraum Klingental, Basel visit Mumbai at the invitation of Shazeb Arif S, an Indian curator who had a five-month residency in Basel in 2015. In BlackoutBasel Shazeb brought artists from 6 continents together for a hybrid project involving an exhibition and a festival of live art. Inviting Heimann, Steiner and Wunderlich brings the collaboration full circle.

Swiss light designer Jonathan O'Hear returns to India to collaborate with Indian choreographer Mandeep Raikhy. On previous occasions O'Hear has conducted workshops at the GATI Dance Forum in New Delhi, Adishakti in Pondicherry and Attakkalari Centre for Movement Arts in Bangalore.

Pro Helvetia New Delhi wishes all the participating artists a productive summer.
