

Shailesh BR from India and Ehsan ul Haq from Pakistan are currently in PROGR, Bern and Atelier Mondial Basel respectively on a Studio Residency awarded by Pro Helvetia - Swiss Arts Council. They have access to studio facilities, a place to live as well as a support network of art professionals to help them.

Rahaab Allana in the meantime is in Switzerland on a Research Residency focusing his research on archiving in photography and availing the opportunity to travel and explore in his field. Aparna leaving for Switzerland next month for her Research Residency.

Both the Studio and Research Residencies are unique and cater to the individual and diverse requirements of each art practitioner. The artist-in-residence programme is designed to facilitate artists to meet and inspire one another, and also to provide them with a favourable environment to nurture their work.
