

It's Delhi next after Tokyo, Prague, Bordeaux, Barcelona and Mexico City for Q&A, an exhibition concept based on a dialogue between products designed by BIG-GAME and items selected by a designer in a specific hosting country. We thank the team at Itu Chaudhri Design for their enthusiastic participation in the project.

Pro Helvetia New Delhi is pleased to be associated with Tilt Pause Shift: Dance Ecologies in India, a reader on critical writing on contemporary dance, at the IGNITE! Festival of Contemporary Dance organised by GATI Dance Forum . We would like to acknowledge the contribution of Swiss dance critic and commentator, Esther Sutter Straub, who worked alongside the editorial team to put together a body of text that voices and raises critical issues concerning the state of contemporary dance in the region.

Pro Helvetia New Delhi continues in its endeavour to encourage dialogue and initiate debate.
