

The opening of Pro Helvetia's liaison office in New Delhi in 2007 was a step towards establishing a platform for equal and mutually beneficial exchange between the artists of Switzerland and India. As we complete ten years, the team at Pro Helvetia New Delhi looks back with a sense of achievement.

The residencies being offered by Pro Helvetia – Swiss Arts Council bring together artists from contrasting cultures, to understand, to appreciate and to broaden each others' horizons. More than ninety Swiss and South Asian artists have been awarded studio residencies in the last ten years. We thank each one of them for enriching the programme.

The application process for 2018 is currently in progress. We urge artists to apply and look forward to receiving their applications.

Wishing you all a creatively fulfilling new year!
