

Six Indian curators have been invited by Art Basel and Pro Helvetia Swiss Arts Council to attend Art Basel 2010 and use it as a platform to strengthen networks for future cultural exchanges and collaborative projects between Switzerland and India. Simultaneously, the exhibition, 'Where Three Dreams Cross – 150 Years of photography from India, Pakistan and Bangladesh', opens at Fotomuseum Winterthur in June 2010, followed by a symposium where select speakers from the Indian subcontinent will detail some sections of the exhibition.

All this in the midst of Pro Helvetia New Delhi announcing the names of the artists who have been awarded Residencies in 2011/2012.

Through its activities, Pro Helvetia New Delhi helps create the conditions that allow arts professionals and cultural practitioners to explore and address other cultures. It is committed to bringing such opportunities and making cultural exchanges real.

June 2010 promises to be an exciting month.
