

Passages, Pro Helvetia's cultural magazine, has provided reports on current trends and developments in the cultural scene for over twenty years and is read in more than 60 countries throughout the world.

Previous issues have addressed interesting topics such as - On the Art of Translation, Intro(se)duction to the Arts, Strange Bedfellows: Culture and Politics in Conversation, New Accents in Swiss Music Promotion as well as Misunderstandings, amongst a host of other current debates on cultural policy and cultural exchange. The electronic version of the previous issues can be accessed at Backlist.

The current issue of Passages takes a closer look at art's capacity to induce euphoria. We look forward to your views as well!
