

The artist-in-residency programme is an integral part of Pro Helvetia New Delhi's mission. Through its residencies, Pro Helvetia allows arts professionals and cultural practitioners to explore and address other cultures and to achieve creative development.

September brings to the fore numerous projects that are a culmination of previously awarded residencies. While, former artist-in-resident, Atul Bhalla presents his work 'Basel Walk' in his forthcoming exhibition, Paribartana Mohanty and Sreejata Roy discuss their residencies at the FICA Art Talk. The current issue of Passages carries an article on the Swiss graphic novelist, Bernard Cosey's residency in New Delhi. Tarun Jung Rawat's exhibition 'plus plus minus', which has strong influences from his currently ongoing residency at iaab, will open at the Dock in Basel, later this month. Within the pilot project of the artists-in-labs programme, Surekha Anil Kumar will be a resident at the Swiss Federal Institute of Aquatic Science and Technology (EAWAG), Zürich and Adrien Missika, an artist from Switzerland, will reside at the Kalinga Institute of Industrial Technology, Bhubaneswar in India.

Pro Helvetia New Delhi calls for applications for studio residencies for the year 2013 / 2014. If you are thinking about applying for the residency awarded by Pro Helvetia, do read this month's newsletter. The residency is the beginning of an exciting journey.
