In consideration of differential regional needs, Pro Helvetia has announced a new global deadline for its international residencies. Please note that the last date for receiving applications for studio residencies is now 31 March of each year.

This December, three cutting edge festivals being held in India have invited artists from Switzerland. We thank the festival organisers for welcoming Swiss participation and for giving Swiss artists an opportunity to experience new audiences.

As 2011 comes to a close, the team at Pro Helvetia New Delhi is busy putting together plans for an exciting and productive new year. We wish you all a creatively fulfilling 2012. Season's Greetings.
